Henry's to Host Wine & Beer Tasting to Benefit Community Boys & Girls Club of Wilmington

Wilmington, NC – Henry's Restaurant & the Community Boys & Girls Clubs of Wilmington are partnering to host Hop 'n Grapes Beer & Wine Festival on Saturday, July 10. Proceeds from the event will benefit the Community Boys & Girls Club of Wilmington's Nutritious Meals Program, which teaches child to make smart food choices.

Tickets for this family event are on sale now at Henry's, located at 2508 Independence Blvd in Wilmington or online at www.lmrest.com/store. Tickets are $10 and include four craft beer & NC wine tastings and an All-You-Can-Eat shrimp boil loaded with kielbasa, NC caught shrimp, and locally grown corn & potatoes. There will also be live music by Kennedy Park. You must be 21 & over to participate in the beer and wine tastings.

Hops 'n Grapes will kick off a new initiative Chef Jason Ivady of Henry's has been testing for several months. Each week Chef Ivady seeks out local produce, seafood & meats to create nightly chalkboard specials he's branded "Crate to Plate." The program has been well received & Henry's recently became a certified member of Goodness Grows, a program of the NC Department of Agriculture & Consumer Services.
